B. Obituaries

Included below are obituaries of some of the contributors to this book.

George McCauley (1931-2010)

“Fordham mourns the death of George McCauley, S.J., a former faculty member in the Graduate School of Religion and Religious Education (GRE).

He was an associate professor of theology and religious education at the school from 1971 to 1987, who specialized in sacramental theology.

Father McCauley was an avid practitioner of the study of group relations. He was a frequent organizer and facilitator at Tavistock Group Relations Conferences and other group-process experiences.

He wrote for America and edited S.J. New York, The Medical Mission News and Here and Abroad. Among his theological publications were Sacraments for Secular Man (Herder and Herder, 1969) and God of the Group (Argus, 1975).

Father McCauley wrote five books of poetry, composing and producing background music for two of them. More recently, he published a novel, Eddie’s Dream (Something More, 2005), in which the central character navigates the shoals of priesthood, religious life and teaching in the second half of the 20th century.

He was a hospital chaplain at the Jewish Home and Hospital in the Bronx and worked closely with the student Eucharistic ministers who administered communion to the hospital sick.

Father McCauley was honored with the GRE’s Founder’s Award at its 2007 Sapientia et Doctrina Celebration.

A wake will be held on Friday, Sept. 10, from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. at the Loyola Hall Chapel on the Rose Hill campus.

Funeral services will take place on Saturday, Sept. 11, at 10:30 a.m. in the Fordham University Church.

Founded in 1841, Fordham is the Jesuit University of New York, offering exceptional education distinguished by the Jesuit tradition to approximately 14,700 students in its four undergraduate colleges and its six graduate and professional schools. It has residential campuses in the Bronx and Manhattan, a campus in Westchester, the Louis Calder Center Biological Field Station in Armonk, N.Y., and the London Centre at Heythrop College in the United Kingdom.”

David T. Barish (1921-2009)

Mr. Barish was an aeronautical engineer/inventor. Developer of the sports paraglider; he is considered the “father of paragliding.” In 2000 and 2005 he was honored by “Coupe Icare”, the annual international festival sponsored by the French free flying organization based in St. Hilaire, France.

For further details see obituary in The New York Times , January 1, 2010.

Steven E. Enderes, age 54,

(From The Record, April 27, 2005)

Longtime resident of West-wood, NJ, on Sunday, April 24, 2005.

Steve began his career in design and cabinetmaking as a set designer for Broadway Shows, Julliard School of Drama and Summer Stock theater. He later took his skills as craftsman/artisan/cabinetmaker to Bogert Built Furniture in Westwood, NJ

Additionally he designed and built displays for Georg Jensen Jewelers in NYC, as well as LaViano’s Jewelers in Westwood, NJ. Later he went on to build his own business “Wood Wrights Inc.” Fine Cabinet making in Paterson, NJ. He designed custom built furniture for clients such as: Richard Nixon, Ralph Lauren and Mary Higgins Clark

Steve’s creative designing abilities won him several prestigious awards. In 2000 he won first place in the NY Watch Display competition for his innovative representation of “Millennium Man”. His enthusiasm for art/design and expression won him first place awards at various shows throughout NYC including the Jacob Javits Convention Center. Currently, Steve worked for “Wood Artisans” in Northvale, NJ- as chief designer and cabinetmaker of high-end furniture and interiors.

Notedly, Steve was a highly spiritual man who touched the lives of all he met. His talents and’ love of all things beautiful were beyond compare. His generosity was never-ending- his kindness, strength and love were, and are truly a beautiful thing.

Lena Wulf

Lena Wulf, 103, of Hartford passed away peacefully on Thursday (January 4, 2001) in the presence of her beloved friend, Halina Sudyka, who was like a daughter to her. Born in Cologne, Germany on November 3, 1897, she was the only child of the late Paul and Franziska (Halle) Wulf. In Germany, she studied weaving at the Bauhaus and established her own studio where she taught physical fitness. She immigrated to the United States in 1936, and became an American citizen in 1944. Lena worked for a doctor and an orthopedic surgeon for many years. which inspired her to return to school at NYU to receive a degree in Physical Therapy. She worked at the Greater Hartford Easter Seal Rehabilitation Center and later as a field worker for the State of Connecticut. She had a great interest in meditation and spiritual exploration, and taught yoga and exercise as a volunteer to the residents of Avery Heights until she was well into her 90's. One of its earliest residents, Lena moved to Avery Heights in February, 1963. She was a bright light whose amazing energy and spirit will be greatly missed by those she leaves behind: the community of Avery, her fellow Cottagers, and all of her many close friends across the country and around the world.

A Memorial Service is planned for Saturday, Jan. 13, in the Chapel at Avery Heights at 2 p.m. In lieu of flowers, Lena requested that donations be made to the Avery Heights Wellness Initiative, 705 New Britain Ave., Hartford, CT 06106. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the Hartford County Direct Cremation and Burial Society.
